Some people come this a blog, some says it is around Informix. Well, it’s all about the things I want to share with others!

I live in Alsace (and hopefully for quite a while). Alsace is squizzed between France and Germany: at the time we were all barbarians (1850 – 1950) we changed quite a few times citizenship (1870, 1918, 1942, 1945)…

Nevertheless, we do have our culture, and I wanted to show one of the popular music around here…

Good luck to the Bredelers, salü bisame!
